RE: Macon County Investments, Inc., et al. v. David Warren
In the United States District Court for the Middle District of Alabama
Civil Action No.: 3:06-224-WKW

Dear Ken & Ramadanah:

This will acknowledge receipt of plaintiffs' responses to our discovery. Although the letter of transmittal is incorrectly dated August 2, 2006, the letter, responses and documents were received by hand delivery on August 16, 2006.

I have several concerns. First, the responses and documents were not delivered three days in advance of the plaintiffs' depositions as required by the Court's Order. Secondly, the responses are seriously incomplete and will dramatically impede our ability to take the depositions of the corporate representatives of the plaintiffs today. For that reason, we reserve the right to reopen these depositions at such time as a proper response is made by the plaintiffs and the documents to which we are entitled are produced.

In accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, please reconsider Reach One's responses to defendant's Request for Production 7, 8, 9 and 10. We request that you supplement your response and produce all responsive documents to which you have objected by 4 p.m. today so that we may properly examine the deponents. Failing that, we will be forced to seek appropriate relief from the Court.

If you would like to discuss this Discovery further, please let me know.

Very truly yours,

GRAY, LANGFORD, SAPP, McGOWAN,
GRAY & NATHANSON
